TO DISSOLVE OR MODIFY TEMPORARY

void developed in the practice of these sewing skills which resulted in generations possessing very little understanding of the intrinsic importance these skills have on the fabric of our culture.

7. Lifei Zhou is as the legal representative of Lishui Feike Children's Clothing Factory, shares of Lishui Yuke Clothing Co., Ltd., Lishui June Network Technology Co., Ltd., Lishui Yuedong Clothing Co., Ltd. and other companies., and Lishui Yuedong Clothing Co., Ltd., Lishui Fanhua Technology Co., Ltd. and Lishui Jingjiu E-commerce Co., Ltd. The entities' profiles are attached hereto as Exhibit D

8. Plaintiff spent at least two hundred thousand US dollars on 1688.com since 2016, including Lifei Zhou's stores. Plaintiff also informed those manufacturers that plaintiff's artworks are copyrighted artworks, and they can not sell them unless they have a license. Unfortunately, the manufacturers have sold the artworks all over the world. Plaintiff's order transactions from 1688 .com is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

9. In 2020, Plaintiff purchased "My 1st Christmas" outfits from Lifei Zhou's shops, including Lishui Yuke Clothing Co., Ltd., and Lishui Feike Children's Clothing Factory. Babany Bebe is Lifei Zhou's US trademark. Order transactions are attached hereto as Exhibit F.

10. In 2022, Plaintiff found out that Lifei Zhou stole the artwork "My 1st Christmas", and sold it on her shops. Examples of Lifei Zhou's copyright infringement are attached hereto as Exhibit G.

11. The defendants, such as Babany Bebe, Kidsfashionshop, Feikebella, Baby's boutique, etc. They are Lifei Zhou's shops. She has run many shops on major marketplaces all over the world.

12. Registration is voluntary. Copyright exists from the moment the work is created. Registering is not the same as copyright.

13. What are the artworks for each Group registration? How many Uploaded Deposits for each Group registration? Lifei Zhou must know about each file if she is the join author or the author.

14. Those registrations were approved by several examiners. None of them has asked plaintiff about the three questions as LP did on July 26th, 2022. If those examiners asked plaintiff about the three questions, “did both of your contribute to each work,” “What specifically did each author contribute to the artwork”, “do you both co-own the copyrights”, then those registrations must be rejected as the same as Application 1-11171900051. The refusal from the Copyright Office is attached hereto as Exhibit H.

15. When Plaintiff created the artworks (Designs At Issue), plaintiff also created the matching designs. The draft versions and the matching designs are attached hereto as Exhibit I.

16. Plaintiff knows that these matching designs are another important evidence to show that plaintiff is the sole author and creator. Plaintiff removed them from plaintiff’s website and closed all shops on Etsy, Amazon since December, 2022. This is the only way that ROADGE can not find them. It damaged to Plaintiff’s loss of future sales, and reputation. There is no sales since then. Plaintiff can not afford to pay credit card and rent. The balance due date is around the corner. The business financial account details is attached hereto as Exhibit J.

17. Plaintiff’s first language is mandarin, and plaintiff only has a high school diploma. Plaintiff is still learning English. It’s very hard for Plaintiff to read professional English related to legal. Plaintiff has to spend full time studying, and learning, reading case documents on Pacer. There is no income since December 2022, Plaintiff is living in fear. Plaintiff is losing interest in daily activities.

18. December is the best time to promote Easter outfits. Now those Easter outfits in Plaintiff's living room are going to be garbage. Plaintiff has suffered heavy losses. Images of the goods are attached hereto as Exhibit K.

19. On May 11, 21 ROADGE's mobile application became the top shopping app on Android by new downloads in the U.S., and six days later took the top spot on iOS as well. ROADGE's mobile application overtakes Amazon as top shopping app on US app store. On June, 2021, the Indian government banned ROADGE's mobile application among 59 apps, including TikTok and WeChat.

20. Intellectual-property infringement is not a victimless crime. Victims are American consumers, businesses, trademark holders, and people who manufacture and sell legitimate products. Often, the illicit proceeds resulting from the sale of counterfeit or unlicensed products are funneled back to support a broad range of illegal crimes. Intellectual-property infringement threatens U.S. businesses, robs hardworking Americans of their jobs, and negatively impacts the economy.

21. Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief, reputational damages in excess of $500,000,000 due to ROADGE'S false statements against plaintiff and damages plaintiff's career, personal life, and public reputation.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

The court must accept all pleaded facts as true and construe them in the light most favorable to the plaintiff. See Turner v. City & Cty. of San Francisco, 788 F.3d 1206, 1210 (9th Cir. 2015); Cousins v. Lockyer, 568 F.3d 1063, 1067 (9th Cir. 2009). The court must then determine whether the complaint "allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged.” Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 678. “Threadbare recitals of the elements of a cause of action, supported by mere conclusory statements, do not suffice.” Id. “[F]or a complaint to survive a motion to dismiss, the non-conclusory factual content, and reasonable inferences from that content, must be plausibly suggestive of a claim entitling the plaintiff to relief.” Moss v. U.S. Secret Serv., 572 F.3d 962, 969 (9th Cir. 2009) (internal quotation marks omitted).

ROADGE’s motion would require the Court to ignore the evidence, including the matching designs, the earlier versions of the artworks, plaintiff’s first publication of the products bearing the design prior to ROADGE selling them, Plaintiff’s ideas with the copyrighted designs, the three orders purchased on ph.shein.com, asia.shein.com.

III. ARGUMENT

A. ROADGE is ruining plaintiff’s reputation. ROADGE is ruining plaintiff’s right of personal dignity.

1. In the letter (See Document 21), ROADGE made a statement that plaintiff’s two designs are commonplace is insult and defamation. Plaintiff’s two designs are sufficiently creative. Copyright protects original works of authorship that are fixed in some physical form. See 17 U.S.C. §102(a). As used in the copyright context, the term "original" means that the work was independently created by the author (as opposed to copied from other works), and that it possesses sufficient creative authorship. See Feist Publications v. Rural Telephone Service Co., 499 U.S. 340 (1991). A work of the visual arts must contain a minimum amount of creative pictorial, graphic or sculptural authorship; a literary work must contain a minimum amount of text. Copyright does not protect familiar symbols or designs; basic geometric shapes; words and short phrases such as names, titles, and slogans; or mere variations of typographic ornamentation, lettering, or coloring. See 37 C.F.R. §202.1. Further, copyright does not extend to any idea, concept, system, or process which may be embodied in a work. 17 U.S.C. §102(b). Failure to satisfy these requirements, a registration can not be issued.

Plaintiff's designs contain vivid colors, and these designs shape a value. The "My first 4th of July" artwork( Designs at issue) has several stars and firecrackers. , and the author( Plaintiff) wanted to tell people that fireworks were part of the very first Independence Day and are the tradition of every 4th of July. When the United States declared its independence in 1776, John Adams was not prescribing a novel way to celebrate America's freedom. "Illuminations" were already a common mode of celebration. Instead, when he wrote to Abigail, he was heralding the birth of the world's newest nation by invoking one of the most recognizable celebrations of nationhood of his time: fireworks.

The "My 1st Birthday"artwork( Designs at issue) contains a lit candle, vivid colors, simple and beautiful. It was believed that the smoke coming out of the extinguished candles sent to God the wish we had in mind and wanted to be fulfilled on our birthday. The lit candles on the cake represented the moon's glow, and the smoke from the candles carried their prayers and wishes to the Gods who lived in the skies. If all the candles were blown out in one breath, the wish would come true and the person would have good luck throughout the year.

Plaintiff's unicorns represent ultimate dreams that people want to achieve consciously or subconsciously. It's more than just a horse. Unicorns hold a fascination for many as they not only represent goodness, happiness, and peace but they also symbolise the hope for all the stardust-covered dreams we long for in our lives.

Plaintiff's artworks are elegant and creative. Consumers' reviews are attached hereto as

Exhibit L

2. ROADGE made a statement that plaintiff is the only copyist is insult and defamation.

ROADGE made this statement based on zero evidentiary support.

3. ROADGE made a statement that plaintiff's registrations are fraudulent is insult and defamation. Plaintiff is the sole author and creator.

4. ROADGE made a declaration that Lifei Zhou is the actual creator of the "My 1st Birthday" and "One" (Designs at issue in this case) is insult and defamation. Lifei Zhou stole plaintiff's artworks. ROADGE's statements are disingenuous. ROADGE made false statements against plaintiff and damages plaintiff's career, personal life, and public reputation. These false statements have constituted an infringement of the right of reputation and emotional damage.

5. Plaintiff Sufficiently Alleges Facts to State a Claim Under the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 501.

6. Plaintiff Has Provided Evidence for ROADGE's continued and unauthorized use of the Copyrighted Work( MY 1ST BIRTHDAY, Registration No. VA 2-308-195).

7. ROADGE Cannot Show That Plaintiff Failed to State a Claim Under the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 501.

8. ROADGE Cannot Show That Lifei Zhou is the co-author.

9. ROADGE Cannot Show That Lifei Zhou created both the "MY 1ST BIRTHDAY" and "One". (Designs at issue).

10. ROADGE Cannot Show That Plaintiff's registrations are fraudulent. ( MY 1ST BIRTHDAY Registration No. VA 2-308-195, ONE Registration No. VA 2-314-705).

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, the ROADGE's motion to dissolve or modify the temporary restraining order should be denied. The Court should grant plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction order.

New message from: sherbut55 (2,397 ★)

Hello Weijie - We shipped the 16 Australian Smocking & Embroidery Magazines to your friend in China in a securely wrapped Parcel on Tuesday 24 August 2021(Australian Time). The Customs Declaration Form was completed as required. We have processed a refund of AU$17 to you for the saving in Shipping Costs for the Bulk Purchase. The Tracking ID Number is CF142245537AU for you to track the progress of the Magazines on the Australia Post Website. We hope they enjoy the Magazines. We will leave E-Bay feedback for you once we have received E-Bay feedback that they have received the Magazines. You should be aware that there will be Significant Delays in Delivery Timelines due to the Current Coronavirus Pandemic. Thank you for Shopping with us - William & Sheryl.

Because you arranged purchase of the Magazines & Shipping through just 8 of the Magazines on the system, we will need to cancel the other magazines off the E-Bay System. As we process taking these other magazines off the system, you will get messages from E-Bay about agreeing to cancel these orders which you should just agree so that the magazines can be taken off the system(The whole 16 magazines in full were sent to your friend). William & Sheryl.

All of the patterns inside the magazines are in perfect condition, except for one pattern which is torn. Just a small section. Its easy to fix.
